General Definition of Cookies.

Cookies are a small pieces of information, in the form of a text file stored by the Internet browser or read from the hard disk of the external device such as a computer, notebook or smartphone, via the Websites visited by the user.

Cookies are used by us in order to increase quality of services to visitors of Websites. Information can be used to confirm and identify user sessions or user preferences.

From the duration perspective we recognize 2 types of cookies used:

- Short term (called „session cookies“), created for a temporary period. Collection of the cookies starts when the user opens the browser window and ends when the window is closed.
- Long term (called „persistent cookies“), which stay on the device after closing the user window for the time saved in the file or for the period that is set in the user’s browser. They are activated always when the user visits the websites that created the file. They may be also erased manually in the user’s browser.

Use of Cookies.

Websites operated by ANASOFT are using cookies and information collected with the help of cookies, in order to better understand visitors of such sites and better understand how the users use our websites.

We operate the following websites: anasoft.sk, anasot.cz, anasoft.com, anasoft.de, signatus.com, signatus.sk, signatus.cz, okdokument.sk, poschodoch.sk, poschodech.cz and eks.sk.

Essential cookies cannot be deactivated because they are indispensable for functioning of our websites. If you do not agree to the use of our analytical and marketing cookies, the functionality of our websites may be reduced.

When collecting essential cookies, the legal basis for processing such information is the article 6 paragraph 1 section f) GDPR describing legitimate interest.

We only collect analytical and marketing cookies, when having your consent in conjunction with article 6 paragraph 1 section a) GDPR, which is the legal basis for such processing. Your acceptance of analytical and marketing cookies can be anytime revoked via our website in the section cookies (shown in the footer menu).

Third Party Websites.

Websites of ANASOFT may contain references to other sites that are out of our control and these directives do not cover them. Operators of these sites can gain information that are used according to their own rules that may be different. We recommend to read their rules of protecting personal information and terms of use.

Currently ANASOFT uses the so called social add-ons from the following social networks: facebook.com, twitter.com, linkedin.com, google.com and instagram.com, which are identified by their logos on our websites. Visiting our site, your browser establishes a direct connection with the servers that contain these add-ons. Content of add-ons is directly carried from Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, Google and Instagram into your browser, which is subsequently integrated into our website. Integration of add-ons causes that you can receive information on a particular page of the ANASOFT website. If you login using some social network, your visit may be credited to such social network. We would like to bring to your attention that information exchange takes place already at the time of accessing our websites, without regard of whether you interact with the add-ons or not. If you do not wish the social networks to collect information about yourself by interfacing with our websites you must logoff prior to a visit of the ANASOFT site.
